Addit cable worm 82 cm 202

The cable worm is an attractive solution that neatly guides and bundles cables between a desk and floor. It's suitable for desks with a fixed height (74 - 76 cm) and desks with the ideal height adjustment range (62 - 82 cm). It has a weighted floor plate for added stability and to ensure it stays straight.

- Length: 820 mm (32,3")
- Under desk cable manager
- Suitable for height adjustable desks up to 820 mm (32,3")
- Easy to adjust the cable worm by adding/removing elements
- For ceiling mounting or other applications, the hole (∅ 3.5 mm) in the middle of each element can be threaded with e.g. steel wire and function as strain relief
- Weighted floor plate for stability
- Suitable for 28 cables of 7 mm (0,3") thickness
