

Bento® laptop table adjustable 453

The Bento laptop table is designed for Activity Based Working environments but works and looks great almost everywhere. It has a safe, intuitive height adjustment mechanism and is suitable for soft seating and (task) chair environments. The combination of a flat, stable base and angled pole, offer best in class stability, easy mobility on both hard floors and carpets and gives you more legroom and reach. With its small stature and big personality, the Bento laptop table is a perfect addition to any workspace.

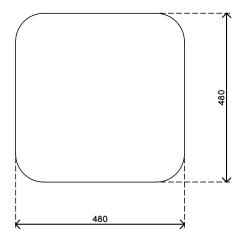

• Great design matches all interiors
